

VIOLA & ACCORDION

FREE CONCERT SUNDAY

April 17 at 1pm

Greta STAPONKUTĖ (viola)
Augustinas RAKAUSKAS (accordion)

The ensemble, Tutto a Dio, is a young viola and accordion duo from Lithuania. The duo, Greta Staponkute and Augustinas Rakaskas, appear to be unique in the world with their exclusive combination of instruments. Their repertoire has a wide range of different genres from baroque, classical and modern compositions to French music and even tango nuevo.

They have performed in Switzerland, Turkey and Los Angeles in addition to recitals in Vilnius, and Kaunas, Lithuania. They have garnered international awards from 2nd prize in the 15th International Academic Music Competition in Latvia, to the Grand Prix award at the International Music Competition Sion 2014 in Switzerland. Other awards were earned at the Coupe Mondiale 2014 Championships in Austria and at the 65th Trophee Mondiale 2015 in Switzerland.

Greta is an experience orchestral musician working with world class conductors Howard Griffiths and Kevin Griffiths. Augustinas is a laureate of numerous national, international competitions and championships worldwide since 2003.

Franciscan Guest House

26 Beach St, Kennebunk Maine ♦ 207-967-4865

Come to the hotel front entrance to be directed to the concert
In case of warm and sunny weather, the concert may be outside